Spurious Reports by New York Journals.

By cable to the News.

LONDON, July 23.—The Blue Book is published containing the detailed protocols of the Berlin Congress, and official report of its proceedings. They disclose [illegible] interest to American readers [illegible] not already given in our [illegible] despatches. Careful reading of this blue book establishes the utter falsity of the pretended details published in certain New York Journals, and professing to have been received in cable despatches to an opposition association, or as specials. Among the frauds thus exposed may be mentioned what is purported to be Prince Bismarck's opening speech, Mehmet Ali's protest, and Count Schouvaloff's speech about selling Cyprus to the Chinese. All these were merely imaginary. So also were the reports pretending to give the details of the scene at the death bed of Queen Mercedes, the massacre of Jews in Russia, Bismarck's dog story and the escape of Vera Sassulitch. The speech in the House of Commons on the 8th inst., attributed to Mr. Cross home, Secretary, was not made. That gentleman did briefly announce the condition of the convention between England and the Porte was concluded on the fourth of June, but he stated that it provided for the occupation of Cyprus and not that it stipulated for its cession to England.

By examing the Parliamentary report in the London Times of 9th of July it will be noticed that no mention was made of highly exciting scenes in the House on the occasion of Mr. Cross' statement so graphically detailed in cable reports manufactured in New York; nor does the Times have a word about the pretended statement by Mr. Cross that the treaty has nothing to do with the questions that have been or, are to be discussed at Berlin. It may be communicated to the Congress as a matter of courtesy, but no proposition concerning it or any modification of its provisions will be listened to. Neither does the Times report have the Secretary as closing his remarks with undignified declarations that the treaty will be found well calculated to preserve and forward the best and highest interest of England and Turkey. Is it not time that these fraudulent and baseless cable reports should be exposed and checked.

The Potter Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 23.—The Potter Committee, consisting of Representatives Potter, Butler, Hiscock and Springer, met this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the United States Hotel. Among those present were Ex-Senator Trumbull. Representatives Kelly and Danford; and of the counsel, Messrs. Shellabarger and J. R. Sypher.

Representative Danford, of Ohio, testified that he was a member of the Morrison committee that visited New Orleans, and there he met Jas. E. Anderson, whom he first new as a Washington correspondent of a newspaper in his District. He had a full conversation with Anderson about east Feliciana was voluntary on the part of Anderson, who spoke generally of the condition of the Parish, and as it being the worst bull-dozed Parish in the State.

He also spoke of having made a protest on which the vote East Feliciana was thrown out. He spoke of having put in circulation the story that during the period of registration he came to New Orleans and informed the Republican Committee, including Kellogg, that his parish was going Democratic, the colored vote being largely on that side and that he had been advised by Kellogg and the Republican Committee that he should either not return to the parish at all or come away and make such a protest as would throw the parish out. The committee adjourned till to-morrow, when representative Kelly will be examined in reference to the Moor House parish depositions. He contradicts the statement of a special from Washington, published in the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, either that the committee have agreed to make a preliminary report before the fall elections, or that he has made any statement, whatever as to the case expected to be proved or effect of the action of the electoral commission.

Eugene Hale arrived here this evening to appear before the committee.

Starved to Death.

By Telegraph to the News.

SAN FRANCISCO July 23—The schooner Parallel reports that on the 7th inst. off the coats about one hundred miles north of this port she fell in with the Japanese Jurick. Not a living person was aboard, but a number of corpses were found, some shackled together. They must have been dead a month at least. Some of the bodies were dressed in costly material. There was no food on the vessel.

Washington Notes.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Naval dispatches from Commander Selfridge, of the Enterprise, dated Serpa Rio Amazon, June 15, distant eight hundred and seventy-two miles from Para report the health of the officers and crew is excellent. The survey is progressing satisfactorily. The Enterprise will go as far up the Maderia as possible.

The Treasury to-day called for redemption of additional five millions five twenties, upon which interest cease October 28.

Revision of the Army.

By Telegraph to the News.

GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR, July 22.—The Military Commission met to-day. Resolutions were passed to keep the proceedings secret at present on grounds that were they to be open a pressure would be brought to bear on the them to change their action as they progressed in their work. They desire to keep members of Congress from being pledged to oppose this or that measure and that all may be deliberate and unshackled.

Texas Democratic Convention.

GALVESTON, July 23.—A special to the News from Eagle Pass, reports the capture of Gen. Escobedo by the Diaz troops under Col. Nuncio near Cuareto Siengas.

DIGEST OF OPISIONS

Of the Supreme Court. Filed at June Term. 1878, to Appear in 77 N. C. Reports.

(Reported for the News by Walter Clark, Esq., Attorney at Law.)

BY SMITH, C. J.:

51. Britt v. Benton, from Wayne.

1. It is not necessary that a processioner should sign the report of the freeholders It is sufficient if he act with them. Batt Rev. Ch. 91, sec. 6, amended by acts 1874'-75, ch. 40, sec. 1.

2. It is sufficient if a majority of such freeholders act. Batt. Rev. Ch 108, sec. 2.

3. A party who has voluntarily sought the statutory tribunal to settle boundaries provided by our laws in regard to "processioning" waives his right to a trial of the issues as to boundary by jury if he has it. Semble: It is a substitute for a trial by jury, and whether the parties seek it or not, there is no constitutional right to have the decisions of such tribunal passed upon by a jury.

By SMITH, C. J:

52. State v. Parrott, from Lenoir. There is no rule of law which permits a husband to give evidence and exclude the wife's testimony as to a transaction, known to both, in a case where neither has any legal interest in the result. In an indictment for an assault and battery committed on the husband, he having testified for the State, the wife isnot rendered incompetent as a witness for the defendant. A remark by the Judge, who improperly interrupted counsel by laying down an erroneous but wholly irrelevant proposition of law, is not ground for a new trial if the court is unable to see that it could mislead the jury or do any harm to the defendant.

BY SMITH, C. J:

53. Brown v. Merchants' and Farmers' Bank, from Mecklenburg.

Where a creditor has a double security, as principal and surety on a note, and both make assignments to pay debts, he can prove his whole debt against each, and receive his full pro rata dividends from each estate till the whole debt is paid.

BY READE. J.

54. Holliday v McMillan, from Richmond.

Where the marriage was before the adoption of the constitution, but property is acquired by the wife since its adoption, such subsequently acquired property is governed by the provisions of the constitution and is the separate property of the wife. A husband who administers on such property must administer the assets according to law and no offsets of debts, due by the husband individually, can be allowed in an action by him as administrator to recover the property.

BY READE, J.:

55. Sever v. McLaughlin from Mecklenburg. Where goods shipped from Boston by the plaintiffs to the defendants in Charlotte were attached in transitu at Portsmouth, Va., as the property of another, and the defendants intervened and on pleadings, duly sworn to, claimed the property, and subsequently in writing, for a consideration, conveyed their interest in said goods to the plaintiff in the attachment and consented to a decree based thereon. Held. If the property were not already vested in the defendants by the shipment, such action was a conversion of the goods to their use, which made them liable to the plaintiffs as purchasers. The court below erred in not telling the jury what the writings and legal proceedings meant, and in leaving it to the jury to find from the testimony of the defendant what he meant.

By READE. J.

56. Shinn v Smith, from Cabarrus.

A husband owed debts and executed mortgages on his land to secure them and his wife joined him in such mortgages and included a tract which was her separate property, and a proceeding was instituted by an unsecured creditor to compel mortgagee to foreclose that he might subject the surplus. In this proceeding, to which the wife was not made a party, an interlocutory order of sale was granted directing the wife's land to be sold first. Held; an interlocutory order is always under the control of the court during the pendency of the action and the wife had a clear equity to file a petition in the case to have herself made a party and thereupon have the order modified so as to direct a sale of the husband's land first. If under such modified order the husband's land sold for enough to pay off the debt the wife's land is exonerated and a restraining order properly issued to restrain the the commissioners from selling it. The wife properly proceeded by motion and petition in the original cause.

BY RODMAN, J.:

57. Wiseman v. Penland, from McDowell.

Long delay in registering a deed is only evidence tending to prove a fraud and is not conclusive. The question of bona fides is one of facts for a jury. An objection that the complaint did not state that the defendants were wrongfully in possession of the land but only that they "withheld" it is cured by verdict and cannot be taken in this court.

By RODMAN, J.

58. Green v Green, from Cabarrus.

As an assignee merely of mortgaged property gets nothing of value, very little evidence will suffice to prove an intent to assign also the secured debts. In the case of the sale of mortgaged property by an assignee in bankruptcy of the mortgagee, it must necessarily be understood to be of the debts secured and of the land only as an incident and appendage to the debts.

BY RODMAN, J.:

59. State v. Geo. W. Swepson, from Wake. This was an application for a mandamus to amend the record to the end that a verdict of acquittal might be reviewed and annulled, and the defendant again put on trial based on the, petition of the Solicitor duly sworn to in substance, as follows: That at October Term, 1874, of Superior Court of Wake county, an indictment for conspiracy and cheating, by false pretences, was pending against the defendant and Littlefield, on which a capias was issued but not executed at the commencement of April Term, 1875. The omission to execute it on defendant Swepson was by the direction of the Solicitor. Littlefield could not be found. The State had retained counsel to aid the Solicitor. At some time during said term, in the absence of the counsel so retained, the counsel for Swepson moved for a verdict of not guilty on the ground, as he alleged, that the action had been compromised. The defendant had been arrested that day under an order made that day by the Judge (Watts) without the knowledge of the Solicitor, but was not present in court. The motion was opposed by the Solicitor, but the Judge ordered a jury to be impanelled, and a verdict of not guilty to be entered, which was done. The State was not ready for trial, and its material witnesses were not present, and no witnesses for the State were examined. The appeal was asked for in behalf of the State which was refused. The counsel for the State then proposed a statement of the facts above stated, and requested the judge to have the same made part of the record which he also refused. Held. The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court is wholly appellate. It has no original jurisdiction to require a Superior Court to put an acquitted person again on trial, or to enquire whether or not, the acquittal was procured by his fraud. The motion is refused. Semble: A verdict of acquittal on an indictment for misdemeanor is a nullity, and the person acquitted by such means may be tried again for the offense of which he was thus acquitted. Semble: A Solicitor may with, and perhaps without, the consent of the judge cause a defendant to be again arrested and put on trial on the old bill or, if not barred by the statute of limitations, send a new bill and proceed on it disregarding the former verdict and judgment as nullities. In either case, the defendant may plead the former acquital, to which the Solicitor may reply that it was procured by the fraud of the defendant and thus raise an issue of fact to be tried by a jury. This doctrine is limited to misdemeanors and does not apply to capital cases and felonies.

By BYNUM, J.:

60. Krider v. Ramsay, from Rowan. Between an original lessor and an undertenant there is neither privity of estate nor contract. An undertenant is entitled in a proper case to recover damages against a lessor for an eviction (the tenant in chief having surrendered to the lessor) but not upon an implied contract, for work and labor done under the lease; and as at the time this action was brought, a magistrate had no jurisdiction in trespass quare clausum fregit, or other torts, a justice of the peace had no jurisdiction of this cause of action.

By BYNUM, J.:

61. Hodges v Spicer, from Onslow. Defendant's appeal.

1. Where a father in 1863 made voluntary deeds to different tracts of land to his sons A and B, who subsequently exchanged tracts, and the deed to A's tract being lost, the father in 1865, in accordance with this exchange, executed a new deed for it to B. Held: In a suit by creditors of the father to subject such land to payment of his debts, the new deed related back to the original deed in 1863.

2. The new deed contained a reservation, not in the first deed, that the father should retain possession of such tract "during his natural life or so long as he may desire it." Held: The creditors could not complain of such addition, it not being to their injury, nor the grantee, the latter having accepted the deed with it. The grantor, under the words in italics, held a life estate, which was subject to execution.

By BYNUM, J.:

62 Hodges v. Spicer from Onslow. Plaintiff's appeal. The declarations of a person, who has executed a deed, at a time subsequent to such execution, are not evidence against the grantee. An owner of land who stands by and sees it sold under execution against another, is not thereby estopped from asserting his title.

By FAIRCLOTH, J:

63. Beard v. Hall, from Davidson. If a defendant die after verdict but before judgment entered, the court can proceed to enter judgment without making his personal representative a party.

By FAIRCLOTH, J.:

64. Fraley v. Kelley from Rowan.

A new promise need not be in writing to waive the bar of a discharge in Bankruptcy. A promise by the debtor to pay such debt "if I live" is an unconditional promise. The new promise is sufficient if made after the adjudication in Bankruptcy but before discharge granted.

By FAIRCLOTH, J.:

65. Bernheim v. Maxwell, from Rowan.

A reference to state a partnership account, made against the objection of one of the parties to the suit, should be set aside. He does not lose his right to a trial by jury by such reference, nor by reason of the further fact that, on the coming in of the report, the court having ordered "report filed, opened for exceptions," and continued the cause, this objection was not taken till the next term of the court.

NO DIFFERENCE.

The Democratic and Republican Parties as Viewed by Messrs Bledsoe and Turner.

Hillsboro Recorder.

M. A. Bledsoe, independent candidate for the Senate in Wake, says there is no difference between the Democratic and Republican parties. Josiah Turner, independent candidate for the House from Orange, and also for Congress for this District, says the same; and blaz s away, right and left, with denunciations, of which his former party friends receive by far the largest share, as a matter of necessity, for his success depends upon the good humor of his new allies.

No difference between the two parties? See what they are,—and you need not go out of North Carolina, or even out of Orange county to learn. It was the Republican (so called) that begun its career in this State by the introduction of the worst outgrowths of a rampant abolitionism which recognized and enforced the worst features of Civil rights and negro equality, which gave constitutional sanction to the revolting practice of miscegenation; which, in taking the administration of the laws into its hands set up as your judges a judiciary so corrupt, so partizan, so ignorant, that justice was practically denied the people to the extent of inciting illegal execution of it, leading to the rise of the Klu Klux, and the tyrranous career of the Kirk freebooters; which, in assuming the law making power, abused it to the extent of squandering among profligate partizans the resources of the people, and loading them with debt and taxes under which they still stagger, and inflicting a deadly wound upon the character of the State abroad by the creation of obligations which reason and justice will always deny, but which selfish interest will continue to claim; which made legislation partial and personal by making it venal and purchasable. And this is only a small part of home republican rule, The national government—that is Republican to the core—what of that? It aims to be the government to crush out State existence, to override State Courts, to flood the State with tax gatherers and revenue agents collecting oppressive taxes in oppressive and lawless ways, to make the people feel that they are a subjugated race with no rights and no claim to mercy; and in the administration of public affairs, to regard no rule but that of might, to recognize no code but that of dishonesty, to honor no policy but that of power; and for the retention of that to stop at no trick, no fraud, no corruption; regardless of all that is right, defending all that is wrong, and threatened now its stronghold, looking forward with unabashed assurance to the restoration to rulership of that archetype of all that is fatal to Republican institutions the ignorant, brutal, the debauched, the corrupt, the ambitious military satrap, the President of two already disgraceful terms, U. S. Grant.

PENDER DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Delayed Report--Explanation by the Reporter.

By Reporter to the News.

On Tuesday the 9th inst., the delegates to the County Convention assembled at Burgaw, in obedience to the call of the Democratic Executive Committee, of which Doctor E. Porter was Chairman.

The Convention was organized by electing Doctor E. Porter temporary Chairman and J. H. Henry and T. H. W. McIntire Secretaries. A Committee on Resolutions and Permanent Organization was appointed of which Mr. L. H. McClanny was Chairman. The Committee reported in favor of making the temporary officers the permanent officers of the Convention. Adopted.

Upon balloting, the following gentlemen were declared elected to the several offices. (The names were published in the News of the 10th inst.)

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted, by a full Convention, every Township being represented:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the recent Democratic State Convention, and will give a cordial support to the very excellent and able ticket nominated by that convention.

Resolved, That as the welfare and success of the Democratic party depends now, as always heretofore, upon its measures and principles, and not upon the selfish aspirations and contests of its leaders, we regard as unfortunate, premature, unnecessary and highly injurious to the party and State, the contest now going on for the position of our next Senator in Congress. We believe the matter should be left as heretofore, entirely in the hands of the Democratic members of the next Legislature, without any pledges from or instructions to them, and that we purposely refrain from exacting any pledges from, or giving any instructions to, the nominee of this convention for the next Legislature upon that mooted question, trusting to his own judgment and love for the State.

Resolved, That the people of Pender county are heartily devoted to the great cause of education, of material progress, of agricultural advancement, and internal improvement. The projected scheme of constructing a railroad from Burgaw down into Onslow, with convict labor, is wise, judicious, practicable and of great importance in the development of the rich and abundant resources of Pender and Onslow, and the people of this entire section of the State are warmly in favor of the measure, as they are of other projected measures of internal improvement in this and surrounding counties, including the magnificent scheme of a ship canal, an inland water route along our coast by the general government, for which Congress has wisely ordered a survey to be made.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of Executive Committee in reference to independent candidates, and that all persons who oppose the nominees of this convention are not entitled to and will not receive the support of any true Democrat.

Resolved, That the thanks of the people of North Carolina are due, and those of the Democratic party of Pender are hereby expressed, to our Senators and Representatives in Congress, who worked with faithfulness and success for these local measures so directly affecting the interests of our State, including the appropriations for the improvement of our rivers and harbors, and the survey of the proposed ship canal.

Resolved, That although still attached to that great principle of Democracy—of rotation in office, and though re-affirming the necessity of a large and better representation of the farming and industrial classes in our State and national legislature, yet we yield to the importance of that other doctrine of the rule of the majority, and will give to the nominees and party a solid support.

Whereas it is highly important to the interests of the Democratic party of the counties of New Hanover and Pender that a candidate for Senator be announced, therefore; be it

Resolved, That the Democratic Executive Committee of this county be empowered to confer with the Executive Committee of New Hanover county and nominate a candidate for the Senate.

Resolved, That we heartily recommend Frank H. Darby, Esq., of New Hanover county, as the choice of this county for the said position.

JAMES H. HENRY, } Secretaries.
J. H. W. MCINTIRE. }

EXPLANATION BY THE REPORTER.

These proceedings were given to the Reporter of the News with the request to publish, requesting the Wilmington Star to copy. But as the Star published, the next day substantially all that was done at the convention, the News Reporter thought that the object sought to be accomplished, had been met, hey were not published in the News. They are now published at the request of Dr. E. Porter, Chairman of Democratic Executive County Committe.

Pigeon Shooting.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, July 23.—The return match between Capt. Bogardus, the American pigeon shot champion, and Mr. Chalmondely Pennell, member of the Hurlingham Park and gun clubs, who was barely defeated by Bogardus in the International match on the 28th of last month, will be shot to-day. They shoot at one hundred birds each for $1000 a side.

THE CAMPAIGN IN LENOIR.

Our Candidates Working Well.--Their Great Popularity.

KINSTON, July 23.

Cicero once said "that nothing connected with human affairs can more properly or profitably occupy the attention of thinking men, than matters concerning the good of the commonwealth." And right well is the above trite saying being wisely considered by the people of Lenoir in rallying to the support of J F Parrott, Esq., the candidate for the Senate in this District, composed of Green and Lenoir counties.

PARROTT'S POPULARITY.

Mr. Parrott is quite a favorite in this county, and will show his popularity by overcoming the Republican majority. If honored old Green will do her duty, as before she has done, he will represent the people of this district in the next General Assembly. One would think from the popularity of Mr. Parrott that he was the nominee of both parties with one of Bill Arp's "independents" as an opponent. But he is a staunch conservative Democrat, who served in the Legislature of 1874-'75, being the only Democrat elected in this county since the war.

THE FARMERS' FAVORITE.

Thaddeus Askew, the Democratic nominee for the House is making telling speeches, and seems to be the favorite of the farmers. Mr. Askew and his opponent, W. W. Dunn, Republican, are doing all the speaking for their respective parties in the county canvass. Every thing seems to be passing off peaceably and quietly.

C. S. WOOTEN, ESQ.

During the canvass has made a few speeches on the financial condition of the country, advocating strongly the platform of the "Greenbackers."

Notwithstanding the unfavorable seasons the crops seem be to at least "lowmidling" in this section, though needing rain very much. VOTER.

The National Party.

Charlotte Observer.

There is another view of the case, which is intimated in the following extract from an editorial in the Washington Republican of Sunday:

"It seems probable that before 1880 North Carolina will be divided by two parties, the Democratic and the National, only. The adherents of the latter will comprise all the elements opposed to the Democracy, and will rely to some extent upon the votes of Republicans."

"Will reply to some extent upon the votes of Republicans" is the cream of this matter. On the contrary, when another campaign is to be fought in North Carolina the Nationals will not depend upon the Republicans, but the Republicans will depend upon the Nationals, just as they have done upon the independents in several political contests just passed. The Nationals will not be a factor in the State strong enough to control the Republicans, but the Republicans will use the Nationals for the accomplishment of their schemes, and it is well enough for Democrats who think of deserting their organization to reflect upon the fact that in doing this they weaken the Democratic party and to this extent aid the only other organization which will have any power in this country at least for several years to come—the Republican party.

The Orange Independents.

Hillsboro Recorder.

About all the merit Josiah Turner can honestly lay claim to is the overthrow of the Radical party in 1870. If that party was as bad as he represented it to have been, then he is entitled to honor, if he attacked it and overthrew it to make room for a purer one. And such the people thought there was, and such they believed they had, until at this late day this same Turner happens to be out of favor with his old party, and he revenges himself by proving that all that he said about the Radicals was false, and that the Democratic party contains all the rings, the rogues, the thieves, the rascals in the State. And by the same process we conclude that the old enemy has been purified, and become a brotherhood of saints. Not a word has Turner to say about any of them now. But Vance and Jarvis and Robinson, and all the good and honored men of the party have taken the places of Holden and Littlefield and Carrow and Tim Lee, and the crowd that Turner once delighted to abuse.

Democrats of Orange! can Turner make you believe that your leading men are all scoundrels and your party all corrupt? That your principles are all wrong, and the Radicals all right again? Or that all wisdom, all statesmanship, all purity, all honesty have centred upon Josiah Turner alone, and that you can only be saved by electing him?

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Correspondence of the News.

PLYMOUTH, July 22.

The Democratic Convention of Washington county, assembled to-day and nominated the following ticket:

For House of Representatives, W C Downing.

For Superior Court Clerk, Thomas Blount.

For Register of Deeds, W H Bennett.

For Treasurer, L M Phelps.

The convention instructed the delegates from this county to cast the solid vote of Washington county for Major L C Latham, at the Congressional Convention, to assemble at Edenton on the 8th day of August next, and in case the name of Major L. C. Latham is withdrawn, to vote for Major Jesse J. Yeates. SAM. W. LATHAM,

Chairman Executive Committee.

Republican Candidates in Orange.

Hillsboro Recorder.

H. B. Guthrie and Lewis Jenkins col. are out as radical candidates for the House. The move is an unexpected one in some quarters. It has upset the calculations of Turner, who laid claim to the radical vote, and the report was actively circulated that Guthrie and Jenkins had been bought by the Democrats to lessen Turners's chances. It is pretty well understood that Turner did expect to get the radical vote—in fact it was his only hope, and we can "fancy his feelings." But as Guthrie denies very emphatically being bought, and proclaims that Democrats have not money enough to buy him, we will be content with his denial, not troubling ourselves to contradict what is too absurd for notice.

Party Rewards.

Hillsboro Recorder.

Turner's great card is that he has not been rewarded, and has been suffered to grow poor in the service of "his party." Is $75,000 pay for the public printing no reward? Is a subscription to his paper, and a patronage without parallel in the annals of journalism in this State, no reward? If the people, the supporters of the Sentinel, got tired of it until it dropped down to pitiful insignificance, are they to be blamed if Turner got poor? And the only explanation he gives as to why his $75,000 did him so little good is that he paid $4,000, for type and fixtures to prepare for the public printing one year when he failed to get it. How many poor men in Orange county would think even $71,000 a large pile! Not rewarded indeed! $75,000 for the public printing and the largest newspaper patronage ever known in the State! If that could not support him, pray how much would it take!

Morganton Insane Asylum.

Bakersville Republican.

We had no idea of the vast proportions of this work until we saw it on this visit. We found one wing ready for the roofing, and the brick work of a portion of the main building nearly completed. When completed, this, together with the surrounding grounds, will be one of the finest institutions of its kind in the United States. A beautiful scenery extending for miles and bounded by a view of the mountains that extend as far as the eye can see, together with a lovely sheet of water near the building, makes it peculiarly adopted as the home of this class of unfortunates. If our Legislature, through a mistaken idea of economy, does not cripple this work by withholding the necessary aid, this building will be ready for use as soon as the work can be done with safety.

Parliamentary.

Exchange.

Even without a heated term things would be pretty warm in the Quebec Assembly. M. Tarte called M. Langelier "a liar" in debate, and apologized for it by presenting the excuse that some one had called him (M. Tarte) "gallows meat." Then after one member had moved to take up a certain bill, another member moved, "an amendment," that the same bill be taken up! When asked to explain such singular action, he showed kindly that he wanted to get the bill through, and didn't think that his honorable friend's capacity or character was such as to make the House look favorably upon any measure his honorable friend might advocate.

Independent Candidates.

Charlotte Observer.

We are pained to learn that Jonas Cline, who has been for 33 years, and is now, Sheriff of Catawba county, declared himself last Saturday an independent candidate for that office, having been defeated for the nomination in the county convention which was held about a month ago.

And G. L. Greeson, who "smiled and smiled" and made Dixie pumps in this city for several years, in a "Brindletail" candidate for the Senate in Alamance and Guilford on the "national independent platform," and "in the interest of education, labor and production."

Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society.

Weldon News.

We are requested to announce a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, to take place in Weldon the 15th of August. It is desired that all the members be in attendance as the great interest in the approaching Fair demands unusual exertion to meet the wants of the patrons. We are assured from a personal knowledge of every officer connected with the Association, that no means will be spared to make the next Fair the most brilliant success the people have yet seen, and Weldon Fairs have always been among the first in the South.

Eclipse next Monday.

Charlotte Observer.

The total eclipse of the sun next Monday is the last eclipse that will be visible for observation in the United States in this century. It will be total in parts of Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, Indian Territory and Texas. The government expedition for the taking of observations will include not only the astronomers of the naval observatory, but directors of many of the leading observatories of the United States. The average duration of the total eclipse at the stations selected will be two minutes and fifty seconds.

Crminal Matters.

Sandy Burnett, together with several other negroes of bad habits, was tried before Justice Whitaker yesterday, for gambling on Sunday. These profaners of the Sabbath are denizens of East Raleigh, and it has been their practice to use the pasteboards on that day. The Justice required each to give bond of $50 for appearance at the next term of Criminal Court. This unseemly practice ought to be broken up entirely and those who engage in it be punished severely.

Three darkeys who had by the evil deeds made themselves liable to the punishment of the law, and could not bring themselves to face its terrors, ran away a day or so since. One of the number has been guilty of fighting. The portion of the city where they once lived, made happy by their absence, only hopes that it may prove not transient. On their return they will be met with great attention by the city.

Speaking Last Evening.

The radicals and independents held high carnival in front of the court house last evening. Hand-bills, circulated during the day, informed the faithful of the eloquence in store for them. A brass band added its sweet strains, which rose and fell over the throng in softest melody. Maj. Bledsoe opened the exercises by trying the patience of his auditors with his set speech. Albert Magnin followed, denouncing everybody. He alluded with peculiar pride to his recommendations, which he had erewhile deluded some Democrat into signing. He appears to a casualistener to need recommendations sadly. Stewart Ellison, colored, next followed. He was succeeded by James H. Harris, colored.

Another Happy Pair.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, July 23.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced the betrothal of the Duke of Cannaught (Queen Victoria's third son) with Princess Marie Louise, of Prussia, daughter of Prince Frederick Charles. The Chancellor said he would move on Thursday the provisions of a grant for the Duke. Sir Charles Dilke Radical) gave notice that he would submit an amendment reciting there is no constitutional precedent for such application.

Questions for Mr. Bledsoe.

Correspondence of the News.

Major Bledsoe, the Democratic (?) Independent candidate for the Senate, is very anxious to know how Mr. Snow will vote for United States Senator. What we radical Republicans want to know is whether Mr. Bledsoe will vote for John H. Collins, colored, for Solicitor, and Steward Ellison, colored, for the House of Commons? We can't see why we should be called upon to vote for Bledsoe, if he cannot vote for colored men. Let him answer.

COLORED RADICAL.

Republican Meeting.

The radical faithful assembled at the speaking place in East Raleigh on Monday night, hoping to hear speeches from some of their party in the canvass, but the Oberlin speaking prevented the presence of the orators. So the assembled Africans were forced to listen to J. H. Renfrow, but only for a short time, for becoming exhausted they dispersed in search of water.

Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876.

By order of District Ex. Committee,
H. A. LONDON, Jr.
July 2, 1878. Chairman.

The Democratic papers in the District will please copy.

Thomas M. Holt.

Since this gentleman is made an object of personal attack in the Senatorial campaign of Alamance and Guilford, it may not be out of place to refer to some of the work of his life as a practical business man and public spirited citizen.

He has been a manufacturer and advanced agriculturist all his life. Every interest of his is and always has been that of the people among whom he lives. He has sought in every way to promote public enterprise and stimulate industry among the people. The public welfare has been his constant solicitude. As a manufacturer he has sought to extend and develope the manufacturing interest, and thereby afford ample and remunerative employment to the increasing working population. As a farmer he has studied the science of Agricultural advancement and stood the patron of every improvement in the line of agriculture. With his means he has aided poor young men to obtain educations to fit them for useful lives. His example, precept and aid have all been for the good of those around him, and in every sense has he filled the measure of a practcal public sprited man of means, brains, and liberal, progressive ideas.

Elected President of the State Agricultural Society, he found that institution burdened with debt, broken down and the public indifferent to its existence. He has taken nothing out, but he gave it his time and attention, applied his energies to its restoration and stimulated it with the aid of his money. He inspired others with confidence in, its success and permanency, and inviting their co operation, they have brought it out of its difficulties, and it now stands on the best footing of any Agricultural Society at the South, and it will be the grandest success in that line in the Southern States.

Colonel Holt has been closely identified with the North Carolina Railroad from its earliest commencement as an important part of his estate. Long a Director in that corporation, he has for several years been its President. His services in that public work have been of great value to the State as a large stockholder, to the corporation as an institution of public benefit, and to the individuals pecuniarily interested therein. Some time ago the government put in a claim of some ninety-three thousand dollars against the North Carolina Railroad Company for tax on unpaid dividends. Suit was brought and the matter was finally referred back to Washington, where, Colonel Holt, going before the Department, succeeded in having the amount reduced to less than six thousand dollars. In the meantime it was discovered that during the administration of President Smith some thirty thousand dollars tax was erroneously paid in excess to the government, and this amount will be recovered at the next session of Congress. This statement is not made on the authority of Colonel Holt, but the figures as presented are believed to be correct.

He has been successful in every department of life, for the reason that he has brought to every undertaking industry and capacity. As one of the Senators from Alamance and Guilford in the last Legislature, he was ever vigilant and ready to meet every question affecting the business interests of the public. His record in the Senate is second to no one who has occupied a seat in that body, and the people of that district in selecting him to serve them have been mindful of their best interests. They will testify their appreciation of his past services by voting to continue him in their service, for it is not often that the people are able to avail themselves of the time and labor of a man like Thomas M. Holt, to whom the honors and emoluments of office are as nothing compared to his private interests.

Democratic County Government.

On Monday the fifth day of August, the Magistrates for each county in the State meet at their several court houses to consummate the last act which leads to Democratic county government.

They meet on that day to elect the County Commissioners, and the board for each county is limited to three or five members, as the board of Magistrates may deem proper. The County Commissioners so chosen will enter, this year, upon their duties on the first Monday in December, that being the date on which the terms of those elected in 1876 expire.

From and after the second day of December next, therefore, the governments of the several counties in North Carolina pass into Democratic hands, and then, for the first time in a long train of years, the Democracy assumes full and complete control of the public affairs of North Carolina. It will be a happy day for the State. It will witness the lifting of the yoke of radicalism from the neck of the people. It will signal the era of relief for which they have so long and patiently waited, and it dawns through the efforts of the Democratic party, and comes of the success of Democratic organization.

It will be well to reflect right here that but for the compact organization and persistent work of the Democracy, the State as well as the county governments would not have been relieved of radical misrule. Let the people think of these things now that it is sought by the Independents to paralyze and destroy the Democratic party. Had the people followed Independents instead of supporting the regular Democratic candidates in the past, there would have been no Democratic county government to inaugurate the first Monday in December, for there would have been no Democratic Legislature, no Democratic Convention, no Democratic amendments to the Constitution and no Democratic State government.

Therefore, if the people prize the possession of Democratic government, appreciate its benefits, relief and protection in the government of the State and the counties, they will continue to adhere to the organization of the Democratic party. To support Independents is to invite the return of Radical rule and ruin which the people have borne and suffered for ten years; and they will deserve to suffer tenfold, ten times ten years, if now, in the light of their experience they assist Independents to again place the Radicals in power.

Discussing and Traducing Vance.

The public is not so tired at the discussion of Vance and Merrimon as the patience of the people is tried at the unjust and outrageous assaults on Governor Vance of daily occurrence in some of the newspapers.

The last and the most outrageous performance is by General Clingman in the Sunday issue of a city contemporary. Now General Clingman is a gentleman of the first prominence and of great popularity in our State. His great abilities are known and acknowledged everywhere, and he properly ranks among the great men of North Carolina His record as a statesman and a soldier should fill the measure of any man's ambition. His name is cherished by the soldiers he led and by all men who honor the possession of great talents. And it is a painful duty to have to employ the pen of criticism on such a man, especially in private life, for he is in no sense before the public, and only through his own persistency is he thrust in the way of public discussion, and subjected to public criticism.

Gen. Clingman charges upon Governor Vance that he was false to his people in the great struggle of the South, and that he entertained the purpose of a traitor. He asserts that the loyalty of Vance to the State and to the South was only purchased at the price of his selfish ambition. Is there any one in North Carolina who believes these statements? Of course there is not, and a man simply renders himself ridiculous who utters them.

He goes further and charges that Governor Vance has been faithless and false to the Democracy since the war; that at the very time when he was in Washington bearing the credentials of a Senator from the Democracy of North Carolina he was hobnobbing and consorting with the Radicals, endeavoring to sell out the people of the State for the price of admission to a seat on the floor of the United States Senate, and to sustain the charges General Clingman says:—

"When he (Vance) was in Washington City striving to get into the Senate, he by some means contrived to be on friendly relations with the managers of the National Republican, the organ of our political opponents The character of its notices of him can be understood from one of them which I present, from the National Republican, February 11, 1871:—

"Governor Vance, Senator elect from North Carolina, in a conversation about the present condition of the political matters in that State, expressed himself very emphatically against the action of the Legislature in calling a Constitutional Convention at this time and in the manner adopted. He characterizes it very briefly as 'a great humbug.' The present Constitution of North Carolina provides that no Convention of the people shall be called for the purpose of amending the Constitution, unless the bill passes by a vote of two thirds of all the members of the Legislature. Notwithstanding this plain provision the Convention is called by a bare majority of the Legislature. Hence Governor Vance's opposition.'

"It thus appears that after the Convention had been called by the Legislature and while we were all in the State endeavoring to carry it. Gov. Vance allowed our adversary to use his name against it."

Language was never worse tortured nor facts more distorted than here. Evidently a reporter of the paper referred to called on the Senator elect, or took his information second-hand. Is a local reporter considered one of the managers of a morning daily at the capital of the country? Does it argue "friendly relations" or any relations with a paper that the views or conversations of a gentleman are presented and reported in its columns? If so every Democrat in Congress and every prominent Southerner who has visited Washington within the past ten years has been on "friendly relations" with the Radical press. General Clingman has himself 'contrived" to never fail to appear in print in such papers as the Washington Republican, New York Tribune and Times, when he has gone North. Does he maintain such "friendly relations" with the managers of these Radical papers as he imputes to Governor Vance?

It was a Democratic principle as old as the party, that a constitutional convention could not be called but by two-thirds of all the members of both Houses of the General Assembly. It was well-known that Governor Vance in 1871 insisted upon this view of the convention question, and in every conversation on the subject here and elsewhere discouraged the "bare majority plan" of calling a convention. At the date which General Clingman quotes the Convention bill, submitted to the people subsequently had not passed in the Legislature. When it did pass, and went before the people, General Clingman remembers well what the people did with it. It was defeated by Democratic votes, and by the people was the old two-thirds rule of the Democracy re-affirmed. The Legislature of 1874-'75 which called another convention, recognized it and would not think of calling a convention but by the two-thirds majority. The Democratic Convention which assembled in September 1875, and in which General Clingman was a delegate, re-adopted the old Democratic rule of two thirds, and was at pains to make the language of the constitution so plain on that point that it could never afterwards be misunderstood.

The bare majority plan was a measure of the old Whig party—a pet idea of Governor Graham and other Whig leaders which the Democrats stamped out in the Legislature of 1854-'55. The Republican as quoted by General Clingman was candid enough to say:—"The Constitution of North Carolina "provides that no convention of the "people shall be called for the purpose "of amending the constitution, unless "the bill passes by a two thirds vote of "all the members of the Legislature. "Notwithstanding this plain provision "the convention is called by a bare "majority of the Legislature. Hence "Governor Vance's opposition."

Thus it is seen that both General Clingman and the National Republican have placed Governor Vance on the very highest Democratic ground. He is proven to have been a better Democrat than General Clingman or any bare majority convention Democrat of the State, for from being a Whig, having as a Whig favored the bare majority plan in 1854, in 1871, as a Democrat he stands by a cardinal principle of the Democratic party. But when the convention was called, and the issue placed before the people, like the party man he is, he gave in his adhesion, supported the measure, and made speeches in favor of the convention.

And these are the efforts which characterize the assaults made upon Governor Vance in the hope of injuring him before the people of North Carolina, and to defeat him for the Senate. The people of this State know how to treat such stuff as this which lately comes from General Clingman and other disorganizers of the Democratic party.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

ELECTION THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——A volunteer company is being organized at Durham.

——The water from the pump at the market has been named "ancestral soup."

The Governor has appointed John M. Shelley a Notary Public for Mecklenburg county.

——Dr. James McKee is building a new and large office on Wilmington street near Martin.

——The statement that R H Bradley, Esq., would take charge of a "stag party" to Beaufort, was a mistake.

——Now is the time for the Street Commissioner to look after the gutters which did so exceedingly overflow during the last rains.

——Attention is directed to the advertisement of Petty & Jones which appears in another column. It will be seen that the firm is closing up business, the partnership expiring by limitations

——The woods of this State, brought to high degree of finish by polishing, have been placed in handsome cases in the Geological Museum, and form one of the most pleasing of its many attractions.

——Two of the candidates, a Republican and an Independent, manifested a brief desire to bathe in each others' gore, at an early hour yesterday. Friends by intervention succeeding in preventing murder from being committed.

The Health of the City.

The physicians continue to speak of the health of the city as unusually good for the season. It is attributable, say they, not to any extra city cleanliness, but to the continued dry heats which have prevailed. Diseases of children are not at all prevalent. The grave digging business is at a stand still. A nice state of affairs.

Sits Down on Him.

Col John A. McDonald makes things lively for the carpet-bag chairman of the School Committee. He shows him up in his true colors in the light of his recent action. In fact, he sits down very heavily on him.

Maj. Gales.

This evening this gentleman will address the public at Metropolitan. His speech will be an exposition of the issues of the day and the duties of the hour. Vigorous and lucid in his style of argument. Maj. Gales is in the front rank of orators, and by reason of this great acquaintance with public life his words are full of meaning and conviction. There will be a large auditory.

For the Mountain.

P. F. Pescud, Sr., the veteran Insurance August, left for the Warm Springs yesterday, accompanied by the Misses Pescud.

Messrs. Joseph and John Creech also left for the same delightful resort.

The travel west is now very heavy. On Friday as many as 75 passengers went through on the N. C. R. R. and the daily average is 40.

Raleigh District Conference.

The Raleigh District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held at Franklinton during the present week, commencing to-morrow at 11 a. m. Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, D. D., Presiding Elder of the District, will be present and preside. The two city churches, Edenton and Person street, will each be represented by four delegates besides the pastors.

Pleasing Occurrences.

The monotony of the canvass yesterday was agreeably broken by three several fights, which produced no worse results than a few scratches and gore—besmeared shirt fronts. These little incidents add so much to the pleasures of the day, that their occurrence gives great amusement, which none seem to enjoy more than the participants themselves. We may anticipate a festive season at the election, a sort of "Donnybrook Fair." in miniature.

Quick Work.

A ruralist wandered into the city yesterday, and beat his footsteps towards that haven of rest, the market. Following him was a female dog, of which he was the owner. On arrival at the market he was accosted by an individual, who, struck by the appearance of the canine, desired to purchase. The owner did not desire to part with his property, but after hesitating and considering the matter sold her for the sum of fifty cents. After effecting such sale, he adjourned to a saloon, and in fifteen minutes was gloriously drunk on the proceeds.

Military Notes.

Philip H. Andrews has been appointed Commissary of the 1st Regiment, N. C. S. G., with the rank of Captain.

Personals.

Hon Jos J Davis, M C., of Louisburg, is at the Yarbrough.

Col Daniel R Goodloe, of Warrenton, is at the same hotel.

Maj W B Lynch, of the Bingham School, at Mebanesville, is in the city.

Thos H Sutton, Esq., of Fayetteville, is in attendance upon the Supreme Court.

Important to Cotton Growers.

"On and after Monday, September 2d, 1878, cotton covered with flax tow bagging containing shives (or small pieces of straw) or manufactured from unrotted or imperfectly rotted flax, shall be deemed unmerchantable, and shall not be good delivery in this market." This is a rule of the New York Cotton Exchange, passed June 6th, 1878.

Thermometrical.

The promised cold wave has at last reached us and bathed us in its cooling embrace. The thermometers, exhausted by the heavy strain of being up in the nineties all the time, now descend from those perilous heights and indicate a temperature more reasonable. From reports the rest will only be brief, for a hot wave is following in the wake of this cool one. So we must be prepared for this fresh attack of old Sol.

Cannot Speak.

The Commissioner of Agriculture, Col. L. L. Polk, has been invited to address the farmers of Guilford at the New Garden Fruit Fair, on the 8th of August. He is also in receipt of invitations to speak to the farmers of Cabarrus, Pitt, Duplin, Warren, Hertford, and Wilkes; also from Hon. Thos. P. James, of Georgia, President of the National Agricultural Congress, to address that body at New Haven, Conn., on the 27th, prox. Owing to prior engagements Col. Polk cannot be present at any of these places.

Lodged in Jail.

Allen Holloway is a negro resident of Barton's Creek Township, and is so deranged in mind as to be fit for the asylum, but owing to the inability of that institution to furnish him quarters, has been confined in the work house. Not long since he was taken thence by his friends. He is a regular wild-man, and is exceedingly dangerous, as he will attack anybody or anything. Yesterday he was brought in from his home, having so disturbed the peace and comfort of his neighbors as to render his confinement necessary. He was lodged in jail, to await the action of the county commissioners.

Agricultural Department.

The library of this Department has been greatly increased by a number of very valuable works on agriculture, as well as the leading periodicals on the subject. Dr. P. E. Hines, one of the most enthusiastic of our gentleman farmers, has donated a number of volumes of rare agricultural periodicals, dating from 1805.

Contributions to the museum continue to be made. The largest rye ever grown in the State, or perhaps in the country, has been sent from Sampson county by Edward Blow, Esq. The heads of this variety which is called the mammoth, are 12 inches long.

Oats are exhibited from Gates county which are 6½ feet in height.

Franklin comes to the front as the champion Irish potato raising county. Mr. A. W. Wilson has sent to the museum a dozen potatoes, whose combined weight is 18 lbs. 7 ounces; the largest weighing 35 ounces.

Mayors Court.

The quiet of the past few days has been rather abruptly broken by some criminal offences, principally by a disorderly colored element of the city's population. The morning levee of His Honor the Mayor yesterday was so well attended by delinquents as to make the scene a lively one.

Anthony Cook, colored, appeared on a charge of assault and battery, was quickly found guilty, and fined $5 and costs.

Jane Jones, another dusky damsel, for a general disturbance of the peace, was sent on to the next term of the Criminal Court. In default of bail for her appearance thereat, she was jailed for safe keeping.

Albert Brown, African, was also, guilty of conduct which was adjudged disorderly. He too was sent on to jail, failing to give security for his appearance at the proper time hereafter.

A Church Robbed.

NEWBURGH, N. Y. July 23—St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church in this city was broken into last night and the poor boxes robbed of unknown amounts No clue.

Failure.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The suspension of William H. Gladwin, an old member of the stock exchange, was announced this morning.

The promised reforms on the Island of Cuba have begun, Suffrage has been extended to every man who pays a tax of five dollars. The Island will be divided into five provinces, with a Governor in each thus doing away with the many useless officials.

As spirituous liquors will injure men, so opium or morphia will harmfully effect the baby. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is the remedy for the baby. It is free from opium. Price 25 cents.

Southampton, Va., Hams.

J. Womble & Sons have just received a lot of the choicest Southampton hams they have ever had. They are unusually nice. Those in want would do well to call early, as they have only a small lot. *1t.

Receiving to-day, July 22d, one car load fine oats, will sell them cheap to close consignment, and receiving every week shipments of mullets, direct from the fisheries, and am prepared to fill orders for large or small quantities, as low as the lowest. D. T. JOHNSON,
Wilmington street.

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at which are the highest this market, affords.

Surest Tranquilizer of the Nerves.

The surest tranquilizer of the nerves is a medicine which remedies their supersensitiveness by invigorating them. Over-tension of the nerves always weakens them. What they need, then, is a tonic, not a sedative. The latter is only useful when there is intense mental excitement and an immediate necessity exists for producing quietude of the brain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters restores tranquility of the nerves by endowing them with the vigor requisite to bear, without being jarred or disturbed unhealthfully, the ordinary impressions produced through the media of sight, hearing and reflection. Nay, it does more than this—it enables them to sustain a degree of tension from mental application which they would be totally unable to endure without its assistance. Such at least is the irresistible conclusion to be drawn from the test many of business and professional men, litterateurs, clergymen, and others who have tested the fortifying and reparative influence of this celebrated tonic and nervine. jy 24 6tdaw

VEGETINE.
IS RECOMMENDED BY ALL
Physicians.
VELLEY STREAM, QUEENS Co.
LONG ISLAND, N. Y.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I take the pleasure of writing you a small certificate concerning Vegetine prepared by you. I have been a sufferer with the Dyspepsia for over forty years, and have had the Chronic Diarrhœa for over six months, and have tried most every thing; was given up to die, and did not expect to live from day to day, and no physician could touch my case. I saw your Vegetine recommended to cure Dyspepsia. I commenced using it, and I continued doing so, and am now a well woman and restored to perfect health. All who are afflicted with this terrible disease, I would kindly recommend to try it for the benefit of their health, and it is excellent as a blood purifier.

By Dr. T. B FORBES, M. D., for MRS. WM. H. FORBES.

VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

Vegetine.
FOR CANCERS AND
Cancerous Humors.
THE DOCTOR'S CERTIFICATE.
Read it.

ASHLEY, Washington Co., Ill., Jan. 14, 1878.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—This is to certify that I had been suffering from a Rose Cancer on my right breast, which grew very rapidly, and all my friends had given me up to die, when I heard of your medicine, Vegetine, recommended for Cancer and Cancerous Humors. I commenced to take it, and soon found myself beginning to feel better; my health and spirits both felt the benign influence which it exerted, and in a few months from the time I commenced the use of the Vegetine, the Cancer came out almost bodily.

CARRIE DEFORREST.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. DeForrest, and consider her one of our very best women.

DR. S. H. FLOWERS.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.—If Vegetine will relieve pain cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

Vegetine
I REGARD IT AS A VALUABLE
FAMILY MEDICINE.
JAN. 1, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir,—I take pleasure in saying, that I have used the Vegetine in my family with good results, and I have known of several cases of remarkable cure effected by it. I regard it as a valuable family medicine.

Truly yours,
REV. WM. MCDONALD.

The Rev. Wm. McDonald is well known through the United States as a minister in the M. E. Church.

THOUSANDS SPEAK.—Vegetine is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.
